AUTO AND MOTOR CYCLE IN SERIOUS CRASH ON LINCOLN HIGHWAY NEAR NEW LENOX

Both drivers badly injured in Sunday crash; removed to Joliet hospital by rescurers; both machines are smashed.

New Lenox, Oct. 16- Sunday afternoon a very serious accident occured on the Lincoln highway west of here near the Alfred Oram place when a motor cycle and an automoblie collided while traveling at a high speed.

The motor cycle was headed eastward, the auto, westward. The auto was driven by a woman and when the motorcycle turned to the right she turned left and struck him. The driver was quite badly injured. The woman was badly cut by the flying glass from the broken windshield when the auto got beyond control and ran into some trees alongside of the highway. Both machines were wrecked. The injured people were taken to a Joliet hospital for medical attention by people attracted by the accident. Their names were not made public. Considerable secrecy has been maintained about the affair.

PASTOR RETIRES.

Rev. J. L. Matlack, who has been serving the local Methodist and the Frankfort Methodist churches during the past year, has requested the conference now in session in Chicago to place him on the retired list. The Rev. Mr. Matlack will move soon after the close of conference to his home at Lake Bluff.

FEAST ENDS HOME GUARDS.

The New Lenox Home Guards had their last big time Friday night when the funds remaining in the treasury were used to purchase ice cream which was served to the members at the Brown & Fitzer store Friday night. The Home Guards were a very loyal and patriotic society and nearly all the men of the township were members at one time or another.

SELLS HOME.

Fred Brown sold his property here to Tom Pugh, the consideration being $3,000. Mr. Brown and his family motored to their new home in Wisconsin, leaving Monday morning.

GIVEN FAREWELL.

A farewell party was held Tuesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stutzle. About sixty guests were present. The evening was spent in games and other amusements. Dancing also was one of the diversions. A luncheon was served.

ENTERTAINS LADIES.

Mrs. J. C. Urch was hostess to the ladies of the Grace Episcopal church at a gathering held at her home Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in a social manner. Refreshments were served.

A party from Joliet has purchased the Wm. Sayers property, known as "the dog farm," and will move on same soon.

ATTENDS CONVENTION.

Miss Hattie Francis attended a convention of the Northwest Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held at the First M. E. church at Decatur the latter part of the week. Miss Francis represented New Lenox as a delegate. The program was rich in vital messages of the work being done in the foreign field. National and international famed missionary workers were on the program and gave addresses.

New Lenox has had a scarcity of coal. Coal has been hauled from Joliet. Soft coal has been delivered here at $7.50 per ton.

M. E. Church Ministerial Appointments

The Methodist Church appointments and changes were announced Wednesday and will effect this community as follows:

New Lenox has been taken out of the Joliet-Dixon District and placed in the Chicago District. No local pastor having been appointed, the charge is to be supplied. Frankfort will be served by Rev. W. R. Holiday. The Trinity and Mokena charges have been combined again and will be in charge of Rev. George V. Herrick. The Rev. J. A. L. Warren who has been serving these charges has been appointed to Lyndon, Ill.

Rev. W. H. Ake who served both Frankfort and Mokena charges a few years ago, has been assigned to Blue Island. The Rev. J. L. Schneider who is well known in this section has been returned to Galena Boulevard Church, Aurora.

Tinley Park, while not mentioned in the list of appointments, it is supposed will be served by Rev. J. A. Foard of Grace Church, Joliet, who has had charge of this pastorate the past year.

E. P. KRAPP OF MOKENA HIT BY AUTO

E. P. Krapp, well known Mokena cattle dealer was injured Monday at Joliet when he was struck by an auto. He was at the Adler market when he saw an auto backing up and bearing down directly on a little girl who failed to see the approaching car. Mr. Krapp snatched the child out of dangers path but was hit himself. His right arm was injured as was also the side of his head. He is able to be out though carrying his arm in a sling.

MOKENA NEWS

Mokena, Oct. 16.—The Wachter property on Second street which has been standing vacant since the death of Mrs. Fanny Wachter a year ago this month, has been sold to Wm. R. Lynk of Marley the past week, the consideration being $4,800. Mr. Lynk expects to move in soon. The property consists of a modern well-arranged bungalow with all modern conveniences and a good sized lot.

HONOR MRS. SEARLES

Mrs. M. S. Brinckerhoff entertained a company of ladies at her home Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Searles who left the latter part of the week for California, where she will spend the winter. The evening was pleasantly spent in a social way. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Searles expects to make her home in California, but may come back here during the summer to visit with friends.

Mrs. S. J. Eakle of Poplar Grove, Ill., has been spending a few days of the past week visiting with Mokena friends. Mrs. W. H. Bechstein entertained a few friends in her honor at a dinner Saturday evening.

ALL BOUNTY ON CROWS IS NOW DISCONTINUED

Mokena boys not able to collect on crow heads turned in now

MOKENA NEWS BUDGET

Mokena, Oct. 16- Wm. Semmler, town clerk has received notice from County Clerk E. G. Young, that no bounty will be paid on crow heads by the county as the Board of Supervisors has made no appropriation for this purpose.

LAST DANCE

The last moonlight picnic for the season will be directed by the Mokena's Men's club at their pavilion next Saturday night, Oct. 18th. If the weather permits a few additional dances may be given by the club, but the weather is getting too chilly for open air dances.

APPOINT DELEGATES

At a special meeting of the Mokena local of the Milk Producers association held Friday morning at Mokena hall, Fred Marti and Fred C. Hinspeter were appointed delegates to attend a gathering of dairymen held at Elgin Saturday. [illegible]

Mokena is having a big sugar shortage for several weeks. The past week Charles Liess, the local baker, was not able to bake sugar goods, but the last of the week he received a small supply of sugar. Cookies ordered from other bake shops are slow in arriving as these shops have also been hard hit by the sugar famine.

BROTHERHOOD HOLDS DEBATE

The Brotherhood of the St. John Evangelical church held a very live and enthusiastic debate at the Mokena hall Wednesday on the topic "The League of Nations." August Braun debated in favor of the league, while his brother, Henry Braun, chose the negative side. G. W. Maue also gave quite a graphic talk in favor of the league, pointing out all the good points contained which it was contended would mean the ending of all wars. W. H. Beckstein and Rev. Wm. Kreis gave addresses against the league showing how dangerous it is for America to get mixed in with European politics. The negative side was declared the winner.

A committee composed of G. W. L. Maue, V. H. Scheer, Prof. Flagherty and Wm. Semmler was appointed to prepare papers on the question "The Cause of the Present Social Unrest and Its Remedy" for the next meeting to be held in November. Following the reading of the papers the question will be open for discussion by the house. A series of these papers dealing with the vital topics of the day will be prepared for the winter months. Several new members were added to the membership list at the last meeting.

The Brotherhood is showing a very active spirit and is contemplating some highly instructive as well as entertaining meetings for this winter.

Simon Hohenstein Jr., of Joliet, is spending a few weeks' vacation from his duties at the penitentiary.

IN THE CHURCHES.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the local Methodist church is planning for a parcel post sale to be held October 22.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the St. John Evangelical church is preparing for a bazaar, supper and program to be directed at the Mokena Hall the first part of November.

The St. John Evangelical Sunday school directed their annual Rally day program Sunday evening. A very fine program was carried out and the church was filled to capacity.

EGG DEALERS MUST TAKE OUT LICENSE

Frankfort merchants are taking out state license; fee $1.00

Frankfort, Oct. 16.—The Frankfort merchants who are buying eggs from farmers have been obliged to apply for a special license from the state food board permitting them to do so. The license fee becomes effective this month, and is $1 per year. Each merchant is given a license number and is required to have this number together with his name and address either written or printed on slips which give the date when the eggs were candled and by whom candled, and this slip must be placed inside of each case of eggs which the merchant ships to other dealers. Parties who purchase eggs from the merchants and sell them again to others, must pay a license fee of $5 per year.

Charles Balchowsky, F. J. Kohlhagen and R. W. Stephen, have applied for their licenses, but Mr. Stephen is the first one to receive his license, getting it Saturday. This is a new law which was passed this summer requiring that all dealers in hen fruit pay a state license. Offenders are liable to a fine.

The chief object is to do away with bad eggs and to enforce the candling of all eggs which are shipped to city markets.

A heavy frost visited this section Saturday night, but no damage to speak of [illegible] the garden stuff and corn are out of reach of the frost. Flowers and tomato plants were covered with papers and sheets, which saved them.

The new change in service of the interurban became effective last Monday. All cars are now run on a two-hour schedule.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rahm are making preparations for leaving soon for California. They plan to spend the winter in Los Angeles, Cal. This will make a second Frankfort family to leave for California, the Christ Heisner family having left a month ago.

The last moonlight picnic of the season was directed by the Frankfort Industrial club, at the Breidert park, Saturday night. In spite of the chilly night, there was a good-sized attendance. The Frankfort Hall company will begin giving dances soon. This company will direct the winter dances.

The Frankfort Industrial club has had a successful season, and the members are well pleased with the receipts taken in. The club has set all the dates for the picnics to be given in 1920, and are making arrangements for engaging the orchestra for the next season. The dates have not been made public as yet.

The local members of the Methodist church are at sea as to who the new pastor will be for the coming year, until the reports of the conference are received.

The Frankfort Home Improvement club are making plans for the program for the next meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs. George Mitchell.

POTATOES COMING

Will have a carload of Minnesota potatoes the last of the week or first of next week. R. E. Stephen, Frankfort.

NOTICE

Party who took shot gun and rifle from the Christ Warning farm Saturday night is known and unless these firearms are returned prosecution will follow. Ed. J. Warning.

Born on October 7 to Mr. and Mrs. William Tobeck, a daughter.

Thomas McGlashen is feeding about 2,100 head of sheep on his farm east of here.

Friday, Clarence and Florence Harnack underwent an operation at the Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, for the removal of tonsilitis and adenoids. Dr. W. V. Hedges had charge of the operation.

DIPHTHERIA CASES.

Four members of the Conrad Heisner family are down with diphtheria. The home is under quarantine.

TINLEY PARK MAN PASSES AWAY TUES

Thies Reuss aged 80 yrs. dies at home of daughter; bnried Thurs.

REV. HEIBER OPERATED

Tinley Park, Oct. 16.—Thies Reuse, aged eighty years, father of Mrs. James Studer, died quite suddenly Tuesday morning. He had been in poor health for some time. He was sitting in a chair when he was stricken. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, Rev. A. Buddenhagen of the Zion Lutheran church officiating.

Mr. Reuse was born in Hollingstadt, Germany, July 26, 1839. In 1866 he located in Blue Island. Following the death of his wife he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Studer. He came to Tinley Park in 1910 and was quite well known throughout this section.

The deceased is survived by four sons: Will of Chebanse, Ill.; John of Kankakee, Ill.; George of Herman, Minn.; Henry of Gravel Hill, Mo., besides 11 grandchildren.

SUPPER BIG SUCCESS.

The bazaar and supper directed by the Ladies' Aid of the Zion Lutheran church at the Saenger hall Thursday night was a decidedly big success. The hall was packed by a large audience. Everything for sale was sold, and the supper was so well patronized that all the eats were sold out in short order. A special table decorated with bunting was reserved for the Tinley Park soldier and sailor boys. A service flag and a large American flag hung over the table. The boys were feted and given a royal welcome. The boys appeared in uniform. A program was given at the close of the supper hour.

DIRECT COMMUNITY AFFAIR.

The school children and the teachers of the Tinley Park school in connection with the country life director of this district, staged an entertainment at the Saenger hall Tuesday evening. The various work of the school was explained and exhibits shown. A very pleasing program was rendered.

MINISTER UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Rev. Mr. Heiber of the Sedan Prairie Lutheran church went to a Chicago hospital the past week to make preparations for an operation which he is to undergo this week.

STORK VISITS THREE FREDS.

The stork visited the homes of three Freds the past week. On Friday a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hick. The same day a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manzke and on Sunday a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mayers.

CELEBRATE MISSION FESTIVAL.

The annual mission festival was observed at the Zion Lutheran church with special services Sunday. The services were exceptionally well attended and the collections for missions were exceedingly gratifying. Rev. Mr. Wenninger of Kewanee spoke in German at the morning session and in English at the evening service. Rev. Mr. Gruenlund of the Sunday school furnished the music part of the program.

H. M. Siebelt moves to Chicago this week. V. H. Scher, local concrete manufacturer, will move into the place vacated by Mr. Siebelt.

The I. N. R. Beatty Lumber company has purchased the old ice house east of the elevator and will convert it into a coal shed. About four feet of the building is being cut away so as to give plenty of space between the building and cars on track. Some cars which have bulged sides oftentimes scraped along the building.

MIXED WHOLESALE AND RETAIL MARKETS TO SOLVE PROBLEM OF COST OF LIVING

Farmers' Public Markets Shaped by Local Needs.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In attacking the cost of living problem through local public markets, communities might well give heed to definite underlying principles that are known to apply to such marketing institutions. Unless one is familiar with the flow of farm produce from the country into the market basket the distinction between "farmers' retail market" and "farmers' wholesale market" is not drawn, but both may be called a "farmers' market" and pictured as one and the same in their operation and function.

Some communities have tried to change farmers' wholesale markets into retail markets, where the housewife could fill her market basket with purchases made direct from farmers—always at a saving. These attempts have usually resulted in failure and a deal of friction between the public, the farmers and officials because, according to city marketing men of the bureau of markets, United States department of agriculture. the farmers' wholesale market is a very different institution from a farmers' retail market.

Wholesale Market.

A farmers' wholesale market draws to it producers who specialize in truck crops and fruits, and who count on hauling corn, potatoes, tomatoes, apples, strawberries or other crops in large quantities. They desire quick sales in large lots after they reach the market so they can return to their farms and the work of production. Time to such growers is more valuable than the difference between what they get in wholesale quantities for their products and what they might realize by lingering long enough to retail their load in small lots at higher than wholesale prices.

Retail farmers' markets, on the other hand, attract a group of producers who raise a small amount of fruit or vegetables as a side line, and whose other crops do not demand as close attention as those of the truck raiser. Often a farmer who raises only a few vegetables can send them to a retail farmers' market in mixed lots, by a member of his family, who is able to remain away from the farm long enough to dispose of these products to housewives carrying market baskets.

The retail farmers' market depends as much for its success upon location as on any other factor. It must be convenient for the housewife. while a wholesale farmers' market need not be as centrally located, because dealers have wagons or trucks with which to gather their supplies. Farmers' wholesale markets are an early morning institution, starting business at daybreak or even before, while a farmers' retail market starts later and runs for a longer time. This, of course, may make possible a mixed retail and wholesale farmers' market; but in organizing such a market it is likely that it will appeal to different groups of farmers, and that it will be necessary to regulate the hours so there will be no conflict between wholesale and retail business among the wagons or sheds.

Too Much Expected.

Although retail farmers' markets have been urged in many communities as a means of reducing the cost of living, too much is often expected of them, according to men who have studied the problem, and who point out that all locally raised produce, especially the more staple crops, such as potatoes, cabbage, onions and apples, represent but a small amount of the total of such products consumed by city dwellers, the bulk of which is shipped in from more distant sections. Retail farmers' markets do serve as an outlet for a certain amount of local produce, varying with localities, that might otherwise be left on the farm, or not produced by the farmer who depended upon other sources of income than fruits and vegetables.

Any community contemplating the establishment of a farmers' retail market should first make sure that there are in that community enough farmers who are willing to haul their produce to market and dispose of it in small quantities direct to the consumer.

Co-operative Shipping Clubs.

Simplicity of organization and the fact that no capital is required make the co-operative shipping of live stock peculiarly adapted to communities in which more complex forms of co-operation would be impracticable. Although not necessarily feasible in all sections, especially those in which live stock generally is marketed in carload lots, or where there is insufficient stock suitable for shipment to market, or where the central markets are not readily accessible, nevertheless there are many communities in various parts of the country which would be greatly benefited by such associations.

GOOD CARE FOR IMPLEMENTS

Deterioration Is Fast Under Influence of Weathering Agents, Such as Sun and Rain.

Agricultural implements deteriorate very fast under the influence of the weathering agents, such as rain, dew and sun. As soon as the work is finished the implements should be polished, if they have been exposed, and put under shelter. These farm helps are too valuable to leave in the weather to rust out.

FUMIGATION OF COMB HONEY

Fumes of Disulphid of Carbon or Sulphur May Be Used to Prevent Damage by Moth.

Some beekeepers find it necessary to fumigate comb honey to prevent damage by the larvae of the wax moth. For this purpose fumes of sulphur or disulphid of carbon may be used. If disulphid of carbon is used, great care should be taken not to bring it near a flame, as it is highly inflammable.

FARMER WASTES MUCH MONEY

One of Chief Ways Is Failure to Keep Farm Equipment in Proper Storage Place.

No one likes to make money any more than the farmer, yet he is the person who is most prone to waste it. One of the chief ways in which he wastes money is by his failure to keep in proper condition his farming equipment. Many kinds of machinery which are used in one season and not in the others should be stored away when not in use.

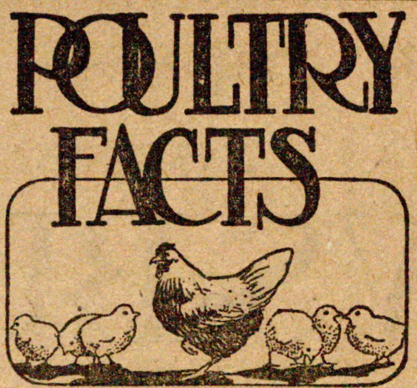
Properly Treated Cow.

Of course, it goes without saying that the well-fed, properly treated cow will show a higher percentage of butterfat than the same cow would if poorly fed and badly treated.

Don't Neglect Chickens.

Do not neglect your chickens for in poultry raising as well as in other callings it is the man or woman who sticks to the game early and late who wins.

POULTRY FACTS



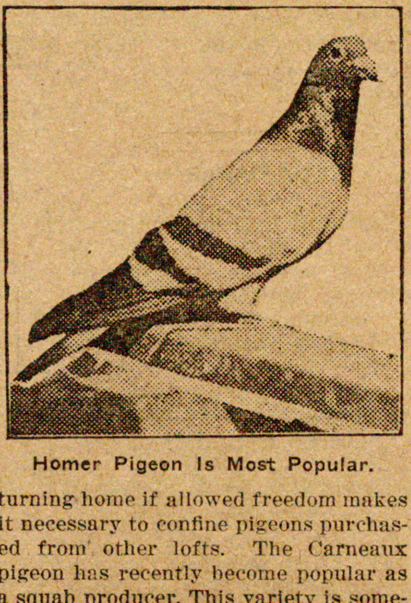
MAKE PROFITABLE SIDE LINE

Success May Be Attained With Pigeons by Careful Attention to Many Little Details.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Many people can keep pigeons successfully as a side issue, although this requires constant oversight and careful attention to details. The greatest difficulties confronting the successful raiser of pigeons seem to be in securing good breeding stock, and finding a market for the produce of a small flock. Pigeons are a profitable source of income on general farms where they may secure much of their feed from the fields, provided they are not a nuisance and the loss by shooting and by hawks, owls and cats is not large. They can also be raised successfully on farms where they are closely confined.

Of the squab-raising varieties the Homer is considered the most popular variety. The habit of this bird of returning home if allowed freedom makes it necessary to confine pigeons purchased from other lofts. The Carneaux pigeon has recently become popular as a squab producer. This variety is somewhat larger than the Homer and it is stated is about as prolific. Several other varieties of pigeons larger than the Homer are used on a small scale in squab raising, especially in crossing with the Homer and Carneaux, to increase the size of squabs. The Runt is one of the largest, but is not as prolific or as good a breeder or feeder as the Homer.



Homer Pigeon Is Most Popular.

Some of the other varieties reported used as squab breeders are the Dragoon, White Maltese, or hen pigeon, the White King, and the common pigeon.

BIG RETURNS FROM POULTRY

Arizona Farmer Made Profit of Nearly $300 From Small Flock in Short Space of Time.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A net return of nearly $300 in two and one-half months from a side line on the farm is the record made by a Glendale, Ariz., farmer who is carrying on his operations under the direction of a poultry extension expert of the United States department of agriculture. In connection with his general farm work he kept a flock of 210 hens, which produced an average of ten dozen eggs during the four winter months. During February the eggs brought an average of 55 cents a dozen, or approximately $150, while the feed bill, including the feed for the young chicks, amounted to $50. The following month the flock showed a profit of a little over $100. During the first half of April the gross receipts were $97.50. In April the extension specialist conducted a culling demonstration on this farm and weeded 56 hens from the flock. The culled hens were kept in a separate pen for a week following the demonstration, and made practically no returns in egg yields. This indicates, the specialist says, that the remaining 154 hens probably made the record with which the entire 210 had been credited.

Tennessee Farm for Sale by Owner

This farm contains 300 acres of fertile land which lies well. It is especially adapted to growing tobacco, of which it will produce during a normal season $200 worth per acre. Other crops grown are corn and hay. On account of the long growing season, and the fact that most of the land is now in grass, it is also well adapted to the raising of live stock. It is well improved with brick residence situated in a beautiful yard of maple trees, running water in the house, concrete silo, 2 large stock barns, 2 tobacco barns and 3 tenant houses, fenced and cross fenced with woven wire. It is located on a good macadam road and has a never-failing water supply consisting of a spring and creek. The climate is mild and healthful, and the farm is within 40 minutes by automobile of the best schools and colleges in the South.

If you want an ideal home, write Box 272, Clarksville, Tenn., for full particulars.

MONKEY BRIDGES ARE MYTH

Famous Scientist Attempts to Explain the Origin of the Story.

From our school geographies we used to learn that South American monkeys cross alligator-infested streams by linking their tails and legs to form a living bridge. In school "readers" published as late as 1897 there are pictures of this extraordinary feat of monkey acrobatics. Prof. E. W. Gudger, in an article quoted by the Scientific American, attempts to explain the origin of this story, that is not believed by any recent explorers.

So far as it can be traced it was first told by Padre Jose Acosta in 1539. The first person to dispute its veracity was Baron Humboldt. Finally Messrs. Leo E. Miller and George K. Cherrie of the American Museum of Natural History, who have done so much traveling and collecting in South America, suggest to Professor Gudger that the story of the "monkey bridge" has come about through observation of a procession of monkeys crossing a ravine or stream on a pendant liana.

LIFE OF DOG IN BELGIUM

Does Not Loaf as They Do in America, but Is Put to Pulling Carts.

The expression, "a dog's life," must have originated in this part of Europe. In Belgium and Holland the dogs do not loaf about as they do in America. In Holland I saw one dog pulling a cart in which three men were sitting, and on the roads we passed many dogs pulling carts, writes a Belgian correspondent in the Kansas City Star. Even more dogs are used to pull carts in Belgium, as the Germans left very few horses in this country. To judge by appearances, virtually all the husky able-bodied dogs in Belgium are "broke to harness." But the roads are good and the carts not heavy, usually, and the dogs seem to like it. The drivers were holding back rather than driving many of the dogs we passed, and in one village we saw a dog bark and beg to be hitched up when a woman started out on a short trip with a push cart. When she yielded and hitched up the dog we saw why she had hesitated. The dog was a big, strong fellow, and so eager to pull that she had a hard time holding him back.

HOW TO AVOID BACKACHE AND NERVOUSNESS

Told by Mrs. Lynch From Own Experience.

Providence, R. I.—"I was all run down in health, was nervous, had headaches, my back ached all the time. I was tired and had no ambition for anything. I had taken a number of medicines which did me no good. One day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for women, so I tried it. My nervousness and backache and headaches disappeared. I gained in weight and feel fine, so I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman who is suffering as I was."—Mrs. ADELINE B. LYNCH, 100 Plain St., Providence, R. I.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Lynch's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

In Agreement.

FASHIONS IN FURS FOR FALL-WINTER

Peltry of Every Conceivable Variety Is to Be Much in Evidence.

STRIPE IS VERY DESIRABLE

Borders and Bands of Rich Color in Contrasting Arrangements Are Used—New Shades for Fall.

A poor excuse is better than none, and so milady will comfort her conscience as she digs deep in her pocketbook and purchases one of the fur wraps of the new season with the fact that a cloth suit or coat would cost in some cases almost as much, writes a prominent fashion correspondent.

In truth furs are proportionately about as expensive and the only reason that there is anything within reach is that every conceivable fur is in fashion.

Paris has been astonishingly catholic in this respect of late and under the exigency of the times admitted to the list of possible furs such lesser pelts as Mongolian goat, rabbit, coney, Manchurian dog and even ordinary house rat. As the scarcity of furs continued through last winter old furs were dragged out of the moth ball closet and worn until there was not a fur left that might not be seen on the streets of Paris.

Fortunately this brought every fur into play, for just imagine the prices if only two or three furs had happened to be in fashion, as in some seasons past.

This is not to say that there are not favorite furs this year, too, but because some of the less expensive furs are in better standing than usual is not an indication that sable, ermine or any of the furs that are always high in price are out of it. Indeed, it is not so much a question of the kind of fur as the manner in which it is made up and the color. Gray furs, squirrel and chinchilla are a shade more in demand than those in other tones.

Stripes Are in Evidence.

Stripes, so very well liked in frocks and suits, find reflection in the furs in the arrangement of the markings, so any fur that has by nature a dark stripe is very desirable for the large wraps that are so frequent.

For this purpose chinchilla and mink are immensely popular and the things that the designers do with the pelts are extraordinary.

On a wrap of mink for evening or afternoon wear the stripes run up and down for the major portion, but a wide band of the fur with the stripes running in the opposite direction is mitred in the front corners and crosses the back at the bottom. The collar on this wrap, which is typically French, is very large and falls over the shoulders and half way down the arms bordered with a horizontal band of mink, bringing the line straight across the figure.

The Parisian with her short skirts wears these all enveloping wraps exceedingly well. Exactly the length of the skirt underneath, the wrap still escapes being cumbersome, particularly as the cut is most apt to be straight and the sleeves rudimentary. Either slits in a cape or very short sleeves in the coats are seen.

Neither American makers nor buyers abroad favor the short sleeves in furs, so the coatees and coats on this side are all offered with regulation sleeves.

Large Collars and Cuffs.

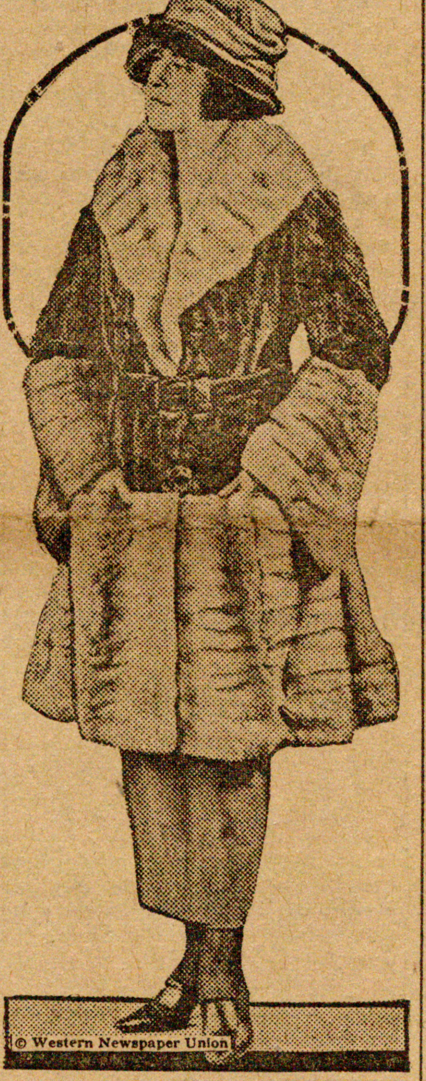
Large collars and cuffs of the longer haired pelts are a feature of many fall suits. Skunk, fox and pointed fox are used and the collars are cut high, giving a luxurious air to the suit. When the use of bands and large pockets is noted it is usually in close fur, as seal, squirrel or beaver. A suit of French blue velours is fashioned with flaring lines from the waist and a vest and high rolling chin collar of squirrel fur. The fur is arranged so that the stripes run horizontally across the front of the vest. The simple tailored suit without a belt and trimmed with large collar and cuffs of fur is sure to be one of the smartest features of the fall openings.

Pervenche is one of the new shades that have been captured for the fall. It is named for the little French flower by that name, which we see once in a while in an old garden in this country under the name of myrtle.

Many Browns and Tans.

Duvetyn is not considered as smart as velvet for the fall or winter hat. Also one will note when scanning the collection in the best shops that there are almost no dark blue hats, but quantities of all shades of browns and tans, while feathers are greatly in the majority as trimming. Velvet shirred and plaited very closely and very cleverly handled is sufficient to distinguish some of the very high-priced models.

Two new sport hats of special interest are masterpieces in handwork and in very different ways. All the vivid colors are used in floss in a turban-shaped affair, and that each shade lose none of its value it is embroidered in a more or less irregular fan shape all by itself and not intertwined with any other color. This hat is also suitable for wear with a strictly tailor-made suit.



Striking and beautiful combination of moleskin and squirrel is this extremely modish winter creation. The hat is of gray velvet with rose brocaded silk.

TAILS AS A DECORATION

Again, it may be merely a matter of tails, and the wrap or fur piece that can count the most tails is easily the winner.

Probably the rage for tails is traceable to the rage for fringe and any and everything that dangles with every motion of the wearer. Seldom are the tails placed anywhere near the spot nature intended them to be. Placed close enough together to form a semblance of fringe is the approved method, but as this is decidedly expensive the close formation in short spaces is sometimes seen.

The dolman, more in evidence here than abroad, is very apt to show a long fringe of tails that runs from the wrist straight down under the arms to the bottom of the hem, otherwise it may run down the sides and around the back or around the bottom without any at the sleeves.

It is seen used in two ways about the bottom, either placed at the top of the hem falling on top of the fur or about the lower edge and hanging free. An ermine evening wrap by an American house has a tail fringe all above the hem, the little dark tails placed very close and showing up well against the white fur. The sleeves of this wrap are wide and floppy, being supplied with a separate elongated flap like a cape, and the collar, very strangely, is of silver fox.

Fruits as Trimmings

Fruits are extensively used as a trimming for evening gowns. The Parisian house of Brandt, which held its opening recently, especially sponsors this mode and varies it by using flowers. Fur plays an important part in trimming their evening gowns also.

Bandeaux, to be worn on the head instead of a hat for evening wear, are shown by practically all of the dressmakers, the bandeau carrying out the idea of the gown. Milliners have done a big business in this class of merchandise also.

New Lenox

New Lenox, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Irvin Jensen, assisted by Miss Mamie Pearson, entertained at a handkerchief and hosiery shower in honor of Miss Dorothy Batson, who is to be a bride this week.

The guests, numbering forty-two, were all cousins of the bride-elect. The room was prettily decorated in pink and white streamers. A cut glass basket filled with pink and white cosmos was the center piece used on the table.

Miss Batson was seated on a couch holding an opened umbrella on which the gifts were poured by Miss Mildred Stephen of Frankfort, a cousin. Progressive games, contests and music furnished the diversions of the afternoon, following which ice cream and cake were served, Mrs. Andrew Pearson, Mrs. George Osmus and Mrs. Harry storm serving. Camera pictures were used as favors.

Miss Batson has been the honored guest at a number of pre-nuptial affairs given lately. Wednesday night Mrs. Willis Morris entertained a company of friends in her honor. Instead of a shower the guests clubbed together and will purchase a gift. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and contests. Refreshments were served. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all.

The Peterson family, occupying the Storms residence, will move into the new house which Wm. Weber is building on the old Fisher lot. The new dwelling is all modern in every way and will be ready for occupancy soon.

FEAR COAL SHORTAGE

The Dougherty Elevator Co., is fearing a coal shortage next month and has made arrangements to have two carloads of coal shipped in here so there will be plenty of fuel on hand to run the plant.

The school entertainment given at the village hall Friday night was a big success. The hall was filled to overflowing. An excellent program was rendered. The affair was known as "The Cook County School and Community Day." The country life director for this district was present. The Matteson band furnished the music for the occasion.

WILL TEACH PRACTICAL COURSE

A new innovation in the various courses taught in the local public school is the addition of a course in home nursing which is being put on for the first time this fall. Miss H. Gooch, a Cook county nurse, has been secured to give the instructions Wednesday afternoon of each week at the Matteson public school. She has prepared a very instructive series of lectures and demonstrations. The girls of the 7th, 8th and 9th grades will be met by Miss Gooch from 3:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. This course is not confined entirely to the girls of the school, but the ladies of Matteson are also to be addresed by Miss Gooch, the hour being from 2 to 3 o'clock.

The campaign committee for raising funds for the Roosevelt Memorial fund is being appointed now and everything will be readiness within another weeks or so to start the campaign.

The local board of health will hold a meeting on November 4th. The health board has issued its second health bulletin which contains some very important pointers relative to preventive measures to be employed to safeguard the public health.

There is a big demand for potatoes in this section. John W. L. Muff has purchased three carloads. Saturday he received one carload and sold them quickly.

Cause of His Complaint.

"I don't like your heart action," the doctor said, applying the stethoscope again. "You have had some trouble with angina pectoris, haven't you?" "You're right in a way, doctor," said the young man sheepishly, "only that isn't her name."

Credit Out of Favor.

A detail of colored engineers who were working on the roads in the vicinity of Boucq were growling at the long hours, the scarce mails and the back pay. The sergeant, to comfort them, said: "But think of all the credit you get." "Ye-ah," came the answer. "Dat's all we do get—credit. Nevah see no cash around heah."—American Legion Weekly.

Were Hearty Eaters.

Many great musical composers had exceptionally large appetites. When Handel dined alone at a restaurant he usually took the precaution of ordering a meal for three. Haydn, yet more voracious, was known to consume a meal that would have satisfied five ordinary appetites.

"Amen Corner."

The phrase "amen corner" is said to have originated in London, where, at the end of the Paternoster row, the monks at one time finished their recitation of the "Pater Noster" as they went to procession on Corpus Christi day at St. Paul Cathedral. They began in Paternoster row with the Lord's prayer in Latin, continuing it to the end of the street, and then said "amen" at the corner of the row. As used in this country the phrase describes the corner of a church where the elderly members sit and pronounce the word "amen" at intervals.

Agile Rhinoceros.

The rhinoceros, nothwistanding its unwieldy shape and short legs, is one of the most agile of beasts. A horseman can scarcely manage to overtake it, and in strength it is perhaps unsurpassed by any animal in the forest. In a single combat no animal but the elephant can stand up against it. To kill a rhinoceros a rifle ball must strike behind the shoulder.

Strange Barometer.

The Araucanians of the southernmost province of Chile use a crab shell as a barometer. In dry, fair weather it is white, but when rain is approaching red spots appear on it, and when excessive moisture is present in the atmosphere it becomes red all over.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Nothing like a wayward bit of Mother Earth to grip the human heart, nothing like a wild weed patch! It is a magnet, swinging us all around into line like iron filings. It isn't a run-down condition that makes most of us take a vacation, it's the call of a wild weed patch.

CHESTNUT DISHES.

The chestnut is especially popular, being the nut most enjoyed for Halloween parties. Its own delicacy of flavor blends so well with others that it is a general favorite and always a delight to the palate. Roasted and served with apples, cider and doughnuts, an October party is quite complete.

A Tempting Entree.—Roast and mash to a paste one pound of chestnuts. Add half a cupful of cream, a teaspoonful of chopped parsley and a dash of salt with two well-beaten eggs; pour into well buttered timbale molds and bake, set in a dish of hot water. When firm, in about 25 minutes, turn out and serve with a cream sauce or with a rich tomato sauce.

A delicious soup may be made with chestnuts as a foundation. Cook a quart of chestnuts in boiling water, slip off the brown skins and drop them into cold water. Drop again into boiling water; add a small onion, three stalks of celery, a small blade of mace and a bit of bay leaf. When the nuts are tender mash through a sieve, add white stock, a tablespoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of paprika and a pint of hot milk. When boiling hot remove to the back part of the stove and add two well-beaten eggs and a half a cupful of sweet cream. Serve hot in bouillon cups.

A Chestnut Salad.—For a dinner salad, chestnuts are delicious. Mix after blanching with chopped apple and celery; garnish with water cress and serve with a mayonnaise dressing.

Dainty Chestnut Dessert.—Prepare a custard, adding a teaspoonful of softened gelatin, a little flavoring of any kind and add a pint of prepared chestnuts. Pour into a mold, and when serving surround with whipped cream.

Brussels sprouts and chestnuts served together is a greatly appreciated dainty. Serve in a thick cream sauce.

Chestnut croquettes is another good dish and with a few pounds of chestnuts and a little forethought one may prepare any number of delicious dishes.

O suns and skies and clouds of June
And days of June together,
Ye cannot rival for one hour
October's bright blue weather.
—Helen Hunt Jackson.

FRENCH DISHES FAVORITES IN AMERICA.

We will have to admit that the French have distanced us in matters of economy. They look with dismay upon the huge roasts and juicy steaks which are found on American tables. Though France knows much, she does not know it all, by any means.

Mark Twain, in his usual entertaining vein, says: "There is here and there an American who will say he can remember rising from an European table d'hote perfectly satisfied; but we must not overlook the fact that there is here and there an American who will lie."

Burgundian Pate.—For this dish the breasts of two chickens must be pounded into a paste; add to this one cupful of fresh bread crumbs and half a cupful of melted butter, half a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne and five beaten yolks of eggs. Cook six livers and six gizzards one hour in good stock. Then add a cupful of chopped ham and the same amount of chopped mushrooms cooked in butter. Cook a few moments and then cool. Line a pate mold with puff paste, fill with the mixture, cover with a paste and bake slowly in a moderate oven. Cover with paper if the crust browns too quickly and add stock through the opening. Serve cold or hot.

Cream Fritters.—Take a quart of milk, one cupful of salt, a cupful of blanched and chopped almonds and a tablespoonful of orange flower water. Boil the milk, add sugar, butter and salt and cook ten minutes. Then stir in six beaten eggs, and cook until thick. Spread in a well buttered pan an inch thick to cool. When chilled cut in diamonds, dip in crumbs and egg and fry a golden brown in deep fat. Serve hot with a lemon sauce.

Let me live in my house by the side
of the road
Where the race of men go by—
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish—so am I.
Then why should I sit in the scorner's
seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban?
Let me live in my house by the side
of the road
And be a friend to man.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY CHICKEN DISHES.

One tires of the usual and ordinary and longs for some new way to present the familiar. French cooks are masters of the art of surprising with the familiar, yet one does not always wish a dish to be entirely lost in seasonings. Some of the following dishes may seem extravagant, but no scrap of meat or bit of bone need be wasted, as there is stock, salad, timbales and canapes which may be made from small bits:

Chicken a la Marengo.—This dish is said to have been originated for Napoleon after the battle of Marengo. Singe and clean a five-pound chicken and cut it up for fricassee. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan and add three tablespoonfuls of the best olive oil. When it is hot add the dark meat of the chicken and cook five minutes. Then add the white meat with salt and pepper and a bit of garlic. Mix and stir over a good fire and cook 20 minutes, until each piece is a golden brown. Have ready a tomato sauce, made from one can of tomatoes a bit each of onion, carrot, parsley, cooked thick and rubbed through a sieve; add one-half pound of fresh mushrooms and the chicken. Cook the mushrooms in fat five minutes. Arrange the chicken on a platter; add to the gravy in the pan three tablespoonfuls of the tomato puree, stir until it is hot; pour over the chicken and serve.

Chicken Baked in Milk.—Melt one-fourth of a cupful of butter, add one large onion thinly sliced; cut two young chickens in pieces for serving, cover and cook slowly, turning often, for ten minutes, then add one cupful of chicken stock and cook until the chicken is tender. Remove the chicken, put stock and onion through a sieve and add one and one-half tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour creamed together. Season with salt and pepper. Arrange the chicken on a serving dish, pour the sauce around it and garnish with sliced bananas cut in diagonal slices, dipped in flour and sauted in butter.,

A widespreading hopeful disposition is your only true umbrella in this vale of tears.

SOME CHOICE CAKES FOR OCCASIONS.

Careful baking is a most important point in successful cake making. If the cake is to bake one hour, watch the oven the first quarter or 25 minutes and see that it commences to rise; the second quarter it should finish rising and begin to brown; the third quarter it should finish browning and begin to shrink from the pan, and the last quarter, finishes the baking. If a cake rises in the middle and bursts open, it may have too much flour or too strong a heat. A cake filled with large holes has either too much baking powder or soda or it has not been well blended. It is not best to move a cake in the oven until it has finished rising, then it can be safely turned. The first five minutes one may turn a cake without injuring it.

Wedding Cake.—Cream one pound of sugar gradually and beat until well mixed. Separate the whites and yolks of 12 eggs; beat the yolks until thick and lemon colored, the whites until stiff and dry. Add the yolks to the first mixture. To four cupfuls of sifted flour (one pound) reserve a third of a cupful to dredge the fruit. The rest sift with two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon and three-fourths of a teaspoonful each of allspice, mace, and nutmeg and a half-teaspoonful of cloves. Then add three tablespoonfuls of orange juice, one of rose water and two of lemon juice. Add a pound of currants and figs, three pounds of raisins, one pound of citron, all cut fine and dredged with flour. Fold in the whites before adding the fruit. Bake three hours in a slow oven.

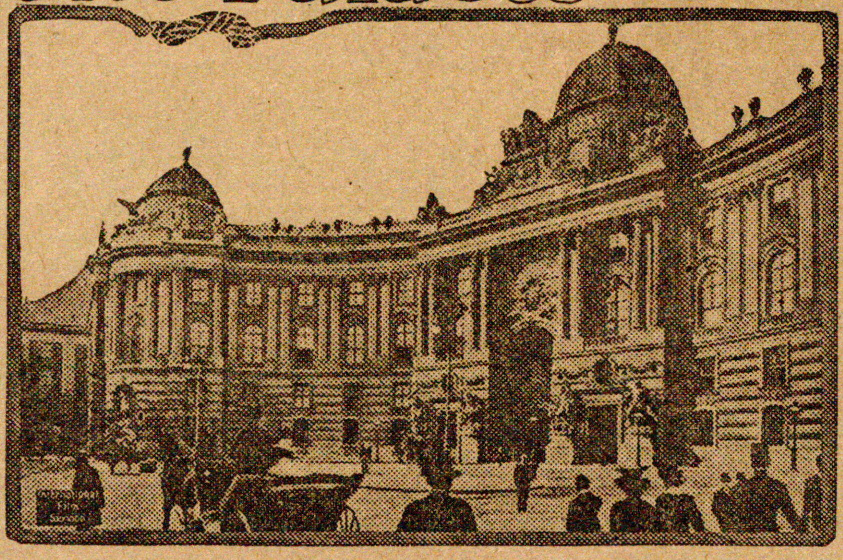
Vienna Playhouses and Palaces



The Hofburg Palace.

VIENNA is reduced by the peace treaty to the capital of a small, weak nation, but it retains the many features that in years past have proved attractive to tourists. Not the least of these are its imperial playhouses and palaces.

Occupying a full square block on the famous Ringstrasse in Vienna stands the Imperial opera house. Two bronze figures, symbolic of music, adorn the left and right wings of the building. These and the ornamental candelabrae at the entrance were designed by Fritz Zenitsch.

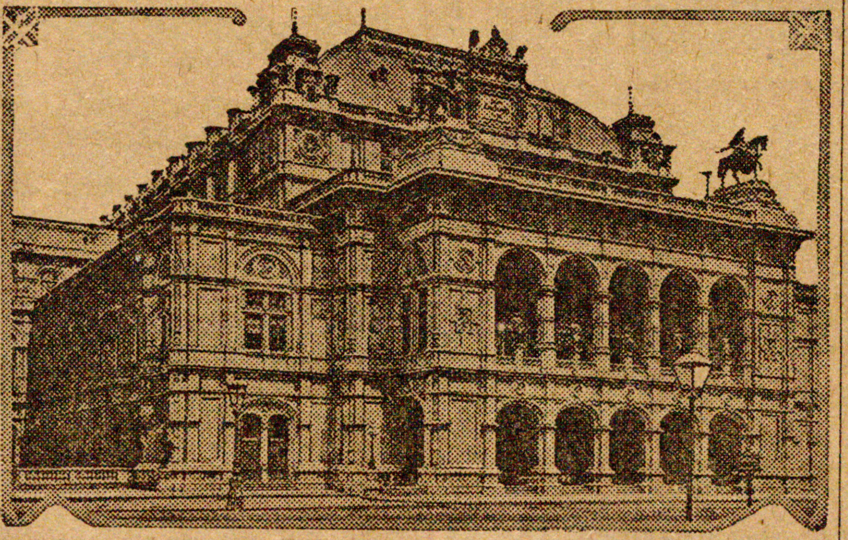
The opera house, erected in 1861-69, is four stories high, with five front entrances and six side ones, built entirely of white stone. It is of Venetian style, principally of the Renaissance period, with a mixture of French architecture of the same time.

Directly on the main avenue is a balcony above the entrance over which are five arches, each having a statue of a renowned musician. At the extreme sides, slightly higher, are two imposing bronze figures seated upon horses.

Scenes depicted from "The Magic Flute" form frescoes in the loggia. The foyer is resplendent in a color scheme of red and gold. Many heavy bronze doors lead into the foyer, some being draped with red plush curtains. An old marble mantelpiece stands at one end, with a carved and gilded grating.

The ceiling is ornamented by rare paintings; at the sides are busts of composers. The walls are enriched with wreaths of flowers and fruit chiseled in stone, making a decidedly brilliant showing against a black marble background.

The auditorium, one of the finest anywhere abroad, was finished by Bitterlich, while the drop curtain used in gay operas was painted by Laufberger, that for tragic purposes, being designed by Rahl. The imperial box is located in the center, with a seating capacity of two dozen persons, for the royal family and guests of nobility. It protrudes slightly beyond the other loges, and bears the Austrian seal and flag.



The Imperial Opera House.

Magnificent Imperial Theater.

The Imperial Theater, on the Lowelbaster section of the Ringstrasse, is equally magnificent. The exterior has statues of Phaedra, Don Juan, Falstaff and Hanswurst. The surrounding niches contain the busts of poets.

A feature of singular note is the grand staircase of 100 steps. Tall lamps at the base and head illuminate the wide ascent, and the sides are framed in open pillars, colonial in style. On the left and right wings are small balconies for promenaders who can get views of the wonderful frescoes.

The auditorium, from which the steps of the grand stairway lead upward, is unique, and the foyer is equally attractive, built in semi-circular lines and extending the entire length of the facade. The ceiling is formed in high and low graded arches, with paintings by Charlemont. An interesting room just off one of the side corridors is used as a picture gallery; it has a collection of water colors and oil paintings of the leading actors and actresses from the year 1780.

Ex-Emperor's City Palace.

Just off the Ringstrasse lies the Hofburg, or city palace of the ex-emperor of Austria. Passing through massive Doric columns, which were constructed by Peter von Hobile in 1821-24, admission is gained to the "Place of Heroes," outside the castle ward. A new wing was here added in 1887-94, completed as late as 1907. Further on toward the eastern side of the grounds is the Heldenplat, where two exquisite monuments stand, the largest in the capital. That on the left is of Prince Eugene. The base of the statue is of white marble, and the middle section is carved in niches, with four black marble inscribed slabs between. Above is the figure of Prince Eugene on a rearing horse. Beneath are supporting figures of women holding garlands, with crowns upon their heads.

The equestrian monument of Archduke Charles stands opposite. This is a tribute to the man who defeated Napoleon at Aspern, and his dress is strongly significant of that period. A large flag is clenched in the hands of the archduke and shields and wreaths of iron form a footstool beneath.

Ascending a winding, massive white stoop, the visitor is led to the interior of a section of the palace set aside for visitors. After gaining entrance to the lobby, guards approach with slippers made of a carpet material, and each person is expected to protect the floors of the imperial Hofburg by wearing the same over his shoes.

This large room is rich in simplicity and lighted by a chandelier of rare value, which drops very low from the ceiling, suspended by bronze chains attached to protruding claws, while the lights of singular and innumerable electric candles are held in place by the hands of angels. Low chairs in bench form with rose colored velvet seats and guilded backs hug the walls in circular fashion.

Dare to Act—When Right.

Most men are afraid of making mistakes. I like men who make mistakes, who have the dash, the energy, the warm blood in their veins, to make mistakes. Everything in life is more or less a gamble. Timidity never accomplished anything in this world. Faith is the main-spring of enterprise. Mistakes make the game interesting. They lift it above the dead level, stimulate imagination, and keep hope young.—Frank Munsey.

Fear in the Child.

"There is a world of truth in Prof. Angelo Mosso's emphatic declaration: 'Every ugly thing told to the child, every shock, every fright given him, will remain like minute splinters in the flesh, to torture him all his life long.'" —"Psychology and Parenthood," by H. Addington Bruce.

"DANDERINE" PUTS BEAUTY IN HAIR

Girls! A mass of long, thick, gleamy tresses

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty. You can have lots of long, thick, strong, lustrous hair. Don't let it stay lifeless, thin, scraggly or fading. Bring back its color, vigor and vitality.

Get a 35-cent bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter to freshen your scalp; check dandruff and falling hair. Your hair needs this stimulating tonic; then its life, color, brightness and abundance will return—Hurry!—Adv.

The Open-Handed.

"How many cigars do you smoke a day?"

"That depends on the kind of people I meet."

A SAFEGUARD

The germs of influenza, and colds, as well as many others, are carried by the air we breathe, hence the best protection is to keep something in your nose that destroys these germs, but at the same time is harmless to the individual, and not irritating.

Vacher-Balm was found during the last epidemic of Influenza to fill the above requirements, indeed many specialists habitually used, and prescribed it.

In fact if you paid a specialist $25.00 for a prescription, you could not get anything better for the purpose.

It also gives quick relief for Catarrh, Coughs, and any superficial inflammation.

For a limited time we will mail FREE Samples to points where we have no agent, so don't miss this opportunity, but write today for a free sample, and agent's prices, or send 25c to E. W. Vacher, Inc., New Orleans, La., for a 25c tube.

The demand for Vacher-Balm was so great last winter that it was difficult to supply it.—Adv.

No Low Shoes.

"I bought a pair of shoes today."

"High?"

"Extortionately."

S. O. S.

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissues it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

Every time the carp breathes it moves 4,368 bones and muscles.

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER.

Stop a minute and think what it means to say that "Green's August Flower has been a household remedy all over the civilized world for more than half a century." No higher praise is possible and no better remedy can be found for constipation, intestinal troubles, torpid liver and the depressed feeling that accompanies such disorders. It is most valuable for indigestion or nervous dyspepsia and liver trouble, coming up of food, palpitation of heart, and many other symptoms. A few doses of August Flower will relieve you. It is a gentle laxative. Ask your druggist. Sold in all civilized countries.—Adv.

The hen is a liberal fowl; she gives a peck when she takes a grain.

Nasty Colds

Get instant relief with "Pape's Cold Compound"

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken usually breaks up a cold and ends all grippe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance. Tastes nice. Contains no quinine. Insist on Pape's! Ad.

A Feeling of Security

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.

Such a medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

The same standard of purity, strength and excellence is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

It is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs.

It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.

It is not recommended for everything.

It is nature's great helper in relieving and overcoming kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

A sworn statement of purity is with every bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

If you need a medicine, you should have the best. On sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Simple Budget System.

"Every young wife should have a budget system to govern her expenditures."

CURRENT WIT and HUMOR

His Greatest Achievement.

"Before you give your answer to this Gotorox boy," said the careful mother, "you must tell me what he has achieved in the world."

"Well, mamma," said the dutiful daughter, "among other things he has achieved a father who has a million dollars, and——"

"Bless you, my children," murmured mother. "I've always wanted you to marry an industrious man."

Would It Were True!

"Ah," said the facetious caller, as he found Scribson busily pounding his typewriter. "Turning out a little up-to-date fiction?"

"Yes," replied Scribson, wearily. "I'm just dashing off a note to my importunate grocer telling him that I expect to sell a story to the Friday Evening Post in a few days."

Superfluous Promise.

The Lover—Promise me, darling, that you will never let anyone come between us!

Darling's Father (in the background)—From what I can see of you I don't know how anyone can!

Elevator Man's Jest.

"The elevator man has asked for more money."

"So?"

"Yes. He says he quits going up unless his salary goes up to."

Sidewalk Humor.

Pedestrian—Hey, mister, you're losing something.

Autoist—What is it?

Pedestrian—The pleasure of my company in your auto.—Judge.

HANDICAPPED.

"You're always complaining of colds and rheumatism. I wouldn't care so much if you only had some fashionable disease."

"I wouldn't care either, but for two things. I haven't got the price and I can't pronounce their names."

Unrest.

I cannot see how it will pay
Or keep me in temper serene
If I work only eight hours a day.
And worry the other sixteen.

Woman's Way.

"Why don't you ask your husband's advice?"

"I intend to, my dear, just as soon as I've made up my mind what I'll do."

Spiteful.

Young Jobbles has bought a rakish roadster. It's spitework, I fear."

"How so?" asked the other.

"The money spent for that car was intended for a bungalow. Young Jobbles wants to show the girl in the case that he has no intention of proposing a second time."

Worse.

Wife—Well, dear, since you complain of the high charges at the seaside, I'll go to the mountains this summer.

Hub—No, no! Even the air you breathe would be higher there.

Eating at High Prices.

"I presume you are putting a little something by for a rainy day?"

"No. I'd rather take a chance on getting wet tomorrow and have something to eat today."

His Somethrng Near.

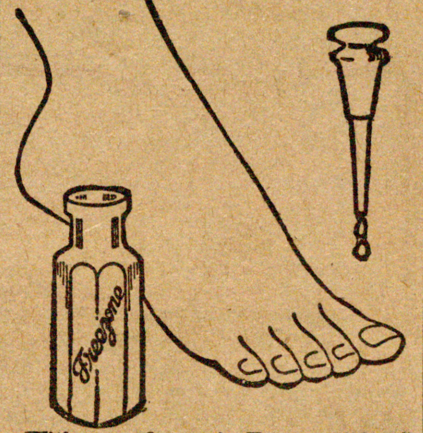
"He hasn't changed his occupation except in degree."

"How so?"

"He used to be a bank-runner, and now he is a walking delegate."

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.



With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.

Bit by Bit.

"I'm afraid your wife's mind is gone."

"I don't wonder at it, considering that she's been giving me a piece of it for so long."

Cuticura Comforts Baby's Skin

When red, rough and itching with hot baths of Cuticura Soap and touches of Cuticura Ointment. Also make use now and then of that exquisitely scented dusting powder, Cuticura Talcum, one of the indispensable Cuticura Toilet Trio.—Adv.

Bad Sickness Caused by Acid-Stomach

If people only realized the health-destroying power of an acid-stomach—of the many kinds of sickness and misery it causes—of the lives it literally wrecks—they would guard against it as carefully as they do against a deadly plague. You know in an instant the first symptoms of acid-stomach—pains of indigestion; distressing, painful bloat; sour, gassy stomach belching; food repeating; heartburn, etc. Whenever your stomach feels this way you should lose no time in putting it to rights. If you don't, serious consequences are almost sure to follow, such as intestinal fermentation, auto-intoxication, impairment of the entire nervous system, headache, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver; sometimes even catarrh of the stomach and intestinal ulcers and cancer.

If you are not feeling right, see if it isn't acid-stomach that is the cause of your ill health. Take EATONIC, the wonderful modern stomach remedy. EATONIC Tablets quickly and surely relieve the pain, bloat, belching, and heartburn that indicate acid-stomach. Make the stomach strong, clean and sweet. By keeping the stomach in healthy condition so that you can get full strength from your food, your general health steadily improves. Results are marvelously quick. Just try EATONIC and you will be as enthusiastic as the thousands who have used it and who say they never dreamed anything could bring such marvelous relief.

So get a big 50-cent box of EATONIC from your druggist today. If not satisfactory return it and he will refund your money.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria tnat Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

Not Always Unlucky.

Friday has not been unlucky in history, if it is so considered by many. It was on Friday, August 3, 1492, that Columbus set sail on his voyage of discovery, and Friday, October 12, that he first sighted land; Friday, November 22, 1493, that he reached Hispanola on his second voyage; Friday, June 13, 1494, that he reached the continent of America. It was on Friday, July 17, 1776, that the motion was made that the United colonies are and ought to be free and independent. Many more occurrences could be cited.
